

Mr. T. G. Gatenby

THE funeral of Mr. Thomas George Gatenby, of 110 Tamar St., Launceston, took place on Friday afternoon at Carr Villa, where there was a large gathering of relatives, friends, members of the railways staff and the 12/50th Battalion.

Rev. L. N. Sutton, of St. John's Church of England conducted services at the home and graveside.

Chief mourners were Mrs. Daphne V. Gatenby (widow),

Mrs. O. Gatenby (mother), Mrs. A. Buchanan (sister), Messrs. Ernest and Albert Gatenby (brothers), Mr. and Mrs D. V. Murray (father-in-law and mother-in-law).

Pall-bearers were Messrs. G. J. Hastie (chief mechanical engineer, T.G.R.), R. C. Morris (works manager T.G.R.), C. R. Smith (inspector, T.G.R.), A. T. Cox (12/50th Battalion), J. Weedon (carriage foreman, T.G.R.), R. C. Lloyd (A.R.U.), T. Flanagan, G. Ruston, J. Elmer, R. Mineall and M. Keeling.

Funeral arrangements were by C. T. Finney and Sons.