	11 th A.L.H. Regiment	—	Lieutenant Alkan William MANNING, MC.	As Intelligence Officer throughout the operations Oct to Dec 1917 he ably and energetically carried out his duties collecting most valuable information. The manner in which he handled the Brigade Scouts resulted in the Brigades movement through strange country being carried out with the least possible delay and inconvenience. His information regarding enemy's dispositions, water and roads have greatly influenced the efficiency of the Brigade on active operations.	Mention in Despatches Warrant - Brig.
