Celebrating the Life of Lillian Mary Fitzgerald
30th March 1916 - 24th February 2014
A wife, a mother, a grandma too,
this is the legacy we have from you.

You taught us love and how to fight,
you gave us strength, you gave us might.

A stronger person would be hard to find and in your heart, you were always kind.

You fought for us all in one way or another,
not just as a wife not just as a mother.

For all of us you gave your best,
now the time has come for you to rest.

So go in peace, you've earned your sleep,
your love in our hearts, we'll eternally keep.
If Roses Grow in Heaven

If roses grow in heaven
Lord, please pick a bunch for me.
Place them in my mother’s arms
and tell her they’re from me.

Tell her that I love her and miss her,
and when she turns to smile,
place a kiss upon her cheek
and hold her for awhile.

Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day,
but there’s an ache within my heart
that will never go away.
Her Journey’s Just Begun

Don’t think of her as gone away, her journey’s just begun. Life holds so many facets, this earth is only one.

Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears, in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.

Think how she must be wishing that we could know today, how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched, for nothing loved is ever lost and she was loved so much.

Lillian’s family wish to thank you for your expressions of love, support and your presence with us today.

After the service you are warmly invited for refreshments and memories of Lillian at the Palmdale Function Centre.
