

Woodlands.

SILVER WEDDING.

At the invitation of Mrs W Evans a large number of friends and relatives tendered a surprise party to Mr and Mrs E Redpath, the occasion being their silver wedding.

The evening was spent in dancing and games. A competition entitled "Public Notices" was won by Miss D Pengilley and S Kirk, and two "Proverb" dances caused much fun. The music for dancing was supplied by Angels Jazz Band.

On behalf of those present Mr John Clarke presented the guests with an inscribed silver scone tray. Mr Redpath suitably responded

The party then adjourned to the house, where a sumptuous supper was laid, afterwards returning to the barn for dancing.

Those present were:—Messrs and Mesdames Redpath, W Catford, W Clarke, H Sires, A S Evans, J Smith, R Tiller, Allan, H Tiller, E Arbon, H L Tiller, G Gosden, B Kirk, L Sires, S Pengilley, W Longmire, McSkimmings, I Tucker, R Angel, B Angel, W Cooper, Dall, and Williams. Mesdames W Evans, Lange, J Clarke, Sires (Balaklava), J Mitchell, C Tiller (Mallala), and C Clarke.

Misses M Redpath, E Evans, M Clarke, E Simmons, C Trepeman. M Tiller (Mallala), A., D., and J. Longmire, J., C., M., M., S., and H. Tiller, E Arbon, E and W Newman, P., S., and M. Kirk, D Pengilley, R Dunstan, M and I McSkimmings, M Reinke, M Cooper, G Dall, C Steele, L Clarke, C Lange, J and C Smith, I Clarke, M and K Haydon, B Sires (Balakiava), H Arbon, H Allan, L Tucker, and D Gosden.

Messrs J C Tucker (Prospect), F Sires (Wasleys), J Redpath, W Evans, W and C Chapman, C and T Hutton, J Clarke, P and B Angel, J and R Arbon, R., A., and K. Tiller, C Reinke, H Dunstan, D Kirk, H Newman, G Pengilley, F Gosden, G Neville, A and M Clarke, W Glynn-Roe, L Buck, J Haydon, C, S., and J. McSkimmings, S and R Evans, L Lange, L and S Longmire, F Huff, M Sires, A and G Smith, C Minney, G Kemp, E., A., and L. Tucker, R

Catford, P Angel, R Saint, and R and L Williams.
