VEITCH -- BARR WEDDING
IN CHURCH OF CHRIST

On Saturday, September 17th, at the Balaklava Church of Christ, the wedding was celebrated of Doris, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Barr, of Lowaldie, and Hartley, second son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Veitch, of Balaklava.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a frock of white georgette. The draped bodice was fastened at the neckline with the “something old,” an antique silver brooch. The back of the bodice was fastened from neck to waist, the long silk tulle veil was held in place with a halo of orange blossom and she carried a bouquet of mixed white flowers.
Miss Nita Pfitzner, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid, and was frocked in pink georgette cut on similar lines to the bride’s. She carried pink flowers and wore a halo of flowers in the same shade.

The bride’s two nieces, Gladys and Kathleen Veitch, were flower girls, and were frocked alike in green georgette and carried pink baskets of mixed flowers and wore green halos.

Mr. Gordon Veitch (brother of the groom) was best man. The church was decorated by friends of the bride with lillies and pink sweet peas.

The bride’s mother wore a black edge-to-edge coat over a floral frock and a black hat, and carried a red posy.

Mrs. A. J. Ingham presided at the organ, and during the signing of the register played “Love’s Old Sweet Song.”
The happy couple left by car for Adelaide and Victor Harbor, where the honeymoon is being spent, the bride travelling in a wine colored frock trimmed with tiny gold horsehoes. With it she wore a navy straw hat and accessories. Their future home is near Balaklava.
