MR. AND MRS. ROBERT JACKSON after their wedding at Wagga. The bride was formerly Miss Enid Jillman.

—Ernest Tooley Studios.
WAGGA GIRL MARRIED AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH; HONEYMOON IN TASMANIA

At St. John's Church of England, Wagga, the marriage took place recently of Miss Enid Stillman, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stillman, of Wagga, to Mr. Robert Jackson, younger son of the late Mr. Elwyn Jackson, of Christchurch (N.Z.), and Mrs. Jackson, of Manly (N.S.W.).

The ceremony was performed by Archdeacon S. J. West, who later presided at the reception. Attractive decorations were arranged in the church by friends of the bride.

The bride wore a lovely classical gown of white chantilly lace over mother-of-pearl satin, finished with fine Brussels net. Pearls adorned her neckline, and the full-length tulle veil, portion of which was worn over the face when the bride entered the church, was held in position by a coronet of orange blossom. She carried a beautiful bouquet of white carnations, tuberoses and stefanotis, with touches of asparagus fern.

Matron of Honor

Attending as Matron of Honor, Mrs. Olive Paxton, of Roseville, wore a gown of ice blue crepe... wore a gown of ice blue crepe beaded in silver. Her headdress comprised the palest pink ostrich feather and a velvet bow. She carried a bouquet of carnations to match.

Mr. Richard Latimer, also of Roseville, who was a brother officer of the 'groom's during the war, flew to Wagga to fulfill his duties as best man.

The reception was held at the 2WG Theatrette, where about 60 intimate friends and relatives of the bride and 'groom were received by the bride's parents. Mr. Stillman wore a light grey frock of heavy crepe with rhinestone trimmings.

For travelling, the bride wore a pale dusty pink frock to which pearls and white accessories provided a pleasing finish.

The young couple were enthusiastically farewelled at Forest Hill when they left by air for their honeymoon in Tasmania.

Narrandera R.S.L. Women Had Busy Year

The sum of £300 was donated to the Narrandera sub-branch of the R.S.S. & A.I. Lea Building fund, at the 14th annual meeting of the auxiliary held on Monday.

The total amount donated during the past three years of this fund was £815. The meeting was largely attended.

The hon. secretary (Mrs. Whitty) presented her annual report.