Testamentary Causes Jurisdiction

This is the last Will and Testament of me Sarah Tucker, wife of John Charles Tucker of near Hoxleyton, Farmer, in the State of South Australia.

After payment of all my just debts, funeral and testamentary expenses, I give, devise, and bequeath the whole of my estate both real and personal unto my executors and trustees, hereinafter named upon Trust for the ends, intents and purposes following, that is to say:-

Firstly. To give unto my daughters Mary Kent Redpath, wife of Edwin Redpath of Hoxleyton, Farmer, and Ivy Miriam Rose Furniss, wife of Robert Alfred Stanley Furniss of Bourllia, Farmer the sum of Fifty pounds (£50) each, and to my daughter Margaret May Tucker, the sum of Fifty pounds (£50) and my piano, all jewellery, and two (2) enlarged photos of Mr and Mrs Clarke.

Secondly. The residue of my estate to be divided equally between my grandchildren, Hazel Evelyn Redpath, Ivy May Redpath, and John Edward Merlyn Furniss, upon their attaining the age of twenty one (21) years -

In the meantime the capital is to be invested in some bank at interest for their benefit.

Thirdly:- In the event of either of my daughters dying during my lifetime then I direct that the sum of Fifty pounds (£50) to which she would have been entitled if living at time of my decease, shall be divided equally amongst my grandchildren upon their attaining the age of Twenty one (21) years.

17754
 I appoint my daughters Mary Kent Redpath, Ivy
 Miriam Rose Furniss and Margaret Mary Tucker to be my Executors and Trustees of this my Will - I revoke all other Wills at any time heretofore made by me - In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name this eighth day of December One thousand nine hundred and nine.
